

Clean Campaigns Forum

Public funding of campaigns for cities and local jurisdictions

November 11-17th is Fair Elections Now Week, nationwide!

Saturday, November 17th ■ 7:30 PM

120 Kane Hall ■ University of Washington ■ Seattle

Panel presentations and commentary, featuring:

- Honorable Nick Licata • President, Seattle City Council
- Paul Loeb • author, researcher, social and political activist
- Marcee Stone • Board President, Washington Public Campaigns
- Honorable Jim Street • former member, Seattle City Council
- Janice Thompson • Executive Director, Democracy Reform Oregon
- Representative Mark Miloscia, Washington State legislature

$5 - $10 Donation suggested at the door – no one turned away.

Reception with panelists - 6 pm

$25 donation requested (includes evening Forum)

Light fare provided.

Presented by

washclean.org

Information: Forum@washclean.org, or 206-784-9695

Washington Public Campaigns is a nonprofit organization advocating public funding of campaigns.

Endorsements for public campaign financing include:
League of Women Voters of WA • AARP • WA State Democrats
• U.S. PIRG • Common Cause • National Council of Churches •
The Backbone Campaign • Green Party of WA • & many others

FORUM CO-SPONSORED BY

Please circulate this flyer.