

We are creating a citizens' movement for public financing of campaigns at every level. If necessary to achieve Clean Elections for statewide and legislative office, we will propose a citizen initiative no later than 2012.

In the Legislature: In 2008 we achieved passage of the Local Option bill, so that cities, counties, ports and PUDs can enact 'Voter-Owned Elections' programs – public funding of campaigns for local office.

In Congress: Fair Elections Now Act. In 2009, together with a national coalition, WPC is working to enact public financing of campaigns for the U.S. Senate and House.

Our dream is a democracy where leaders are elected on the strength of their ideas – not their fundraising prowess – and can govern free of attempted influence by campaign contributions.

Please visit the WPC website and become active – as an advocate for public financing!

Contributions to WPC

WPC has a new 501(c)3 fiscal partner. Tax-deductible contributions to support our public education work can be written to:

WPC Education Fund, P.O. Box 70452,
Seattle WA 98127-0452

WPC also needs financial support for our lobbying work. Make contributions on our website, or by check payable to "WPC" or Washington Public Campaigns, at the same WPC address.

Thank you!

Working together, we are changing history.

Washington Public Campaigns
washclean.org

We are creating a citizens' movement for public financing of campaigns at every level. If necessary to achieve Clean Elections for statewide and legislative office, we will propose a citizen initiative no later than 2012.

In the Legislature: In 2008 we achieved passage of the Local Option bill, so that cities, counties, ports and PUDs can enact 'Voter-Owned Elections' programs – public funding of campaigns for local office.

In Congress: Fair Elections Now Act. In 2009, together with a national coalition, WPC is working to enact public financing of campaigns for the U.S. Senate and House.

Our dream is a democracy where leaders are elected on the strength of their ideas – not their fundraising prowess – and can govern free of attempted influence by campaign contributions.

Please visit the WPC website and become active – as an advocate for public financing!

Contributions to WPC

WPC has a new 501(c)3 fiscal partner. Tax-deductible contributions to support our public education work can be written to:

WPC Education Fund, P.O. Box 70452,
Seattle WA 98127-0452

WPC also needs financial support for our lobbying work. Make contributions on our website, or by check payable to "WPC" or Washington Public Campaigns, at the same WPC address.

Thank you!

Working together, we are changing history.

Washington Public Campaigns
washclean.org

We are creating a citizens' movement for public financing of campaigns at every level. If necessary to achieve Clean Elections for statewide and legislative office, we will propose a citizen initiative no later than 2012.

In the Legislature: In 2008 we achieved passage of the Local Option bill, so that cities, counties, ports and PUDs can enact 'Voter-Owned Elections' programs – public funding of campaigns for local office.

In Congress: Fair Elections Now Act. In 2009, together with a national coalition, WPC is working to enact public financing of campaigns for the U.S. Senate and House.

Our dream is a democracy where leaders are elected on the strength of their ideas – not their fundraising prowess – and can govern free of attempted influence by campaign contributions.

Please visit the WPC website and become active – as an advocate for public financing!

Contributions to WPC

WPC has a new 501(c)3 fiscal partner. Tax-deductible contributions to support our public education work can be written to:

WPC Education Fund, P.O. Box 70452,
Seattle WA 98127-0452

WPC also needs financial support for our lobbying work. Make contributions on our website, or by check payable to "WPC" or Washington Public Campaigns, at the same WPC address.

Thank you!

Working together, we are changing history.

Washington Public Campaigns
washclean.org