

Washington Public Campaigns is looking for volunteers!

Washington Public Campaigns (WPC) is working for clean, fair, publicly-financed elections in Washington State. Candidates who opt to run on public funding would be able to spend their campaigns listening to voters in their district, instead of wooing special interests for large campaign contributions. More information: visit our website, washclean.org.

Please check your favorite ways to help and leave this form with the signup sheets. Make sure you fill out all your contact information on the signup sheet. Most of the tasks can be done at your home and on your schedule.
